

Digital Library

The second phase of the journey of Digitization is enabling accessibility of more than one lakh digitized documents comprising approx. 1 crore pages from selective collections of the Parliament Library viz. Papers Laid on the Table of House, Reports, Books, Acts, Bills and Periodicals etc. 89,000 documents are already made available and shortly all the digitized documents will be uploaded. The documents have been digitized through a NISDI vendor and are placed in DSpace technology.

Bills- Various Government bills 'As introduced' in the Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha have been digitized and made available for viewing through this portal. These documents can be searched through various parameters. More documents in this category will be made available in future.

Books- Various books published by the Lok Sabha Secretariat are digitized and pdf versions of these books are available for searching and viewing. These documents can be searched through various parameters. More books will be made available in future.

Joint Parliamentary/Select Committee Report on Bills- Various Joint Parliamentary/Select Committee Reports on various Bills have been digitized and made available for viewing in the portal. These documents can be searched through various parameters. More such Reports will be made available in future.

Papers Laid on the Table- In this collection 'Papers Laid on the Table of the House' have been digitized and made available in the portal. These documents can be searched through various parameters. More such Reports will be made available in future.

Periodicals- The Hindi version of 'Journal of Parliamentary Information' 'संसदीय पत्रिका' brought out by the Lok Sabha Secretariat have been digitized and made available in the portal. These documents can be searched through various parameters. More journals will be made available in future.

Reports- Various reports from 1840 to 2021 have been digitized and made available for viewing in the portal. These reports can be searched through various parameters. More such reports will be made available in future.